My name is Vincent Resh. I am a professor in the Department of Environmental Science, Policy & Management at the University of California, Berkeley. I would like to invite to take part in my research. It concerns the development of the River Continuum Concept. I am interested in your views concerning the development of this ecological paradigm.

If you agree to take part in my research, I will conduct an interview with you at the time and location of your choice. The interview will involve questions about the development of the River Continuum Concept. The interview should last about 30-45 minutes. With your permission, I will audiotape the interview.

I expect to conduct only one interview, however, follow-ups may be needed for additional clarification.

There are no foreseeable risks to you from participating in this research. There is no direct benefit to you, however we hope that the research will benefit society by showing the impact and importance of the River Continuum Concept. There will be no costs to you, other than your time involved.

All of the information that I obtain from you during the research will be kept confidential. I will store the tape recording and notes about it in a locked cabinet. I will not use your name or other identifying information in any reports of the research without your additional consent on this form. After this research is completed, the same confidentiality guarantees given here will apply to future storage and use of the materials.

Your participation in this research is voluntary. You are free to refuse to take part. You may refuse to answer any questions and may stop taking part in the study at any time. Whether or not you participate in this research will have no bearing on your standing in your job.

If you have any questions about the research, you may call me, Vincent H. resh, at (510) 642-3763. If you agree to take part in the research, please sign the form below. Please keep the other copy of this agreement for future reference.

If you have any questions about your rights or treatment as a participant in this research project, please contact the University of California at Berkeley's Committee for Protection of Human Subjects at (510) 642-7461, or e-mail: subjects@berkeley.edu.

I have read this consent form and agree to take part in this research.

Signature: Vincent H. Resh

Date: 2-25-05

I also agree to allow my name or other identifying information to be included in all final reports and publications resulting from my participation in this research.
